

This is a title

Jun Yan

September 30, 2024

UConn Sports Analytics Symposium (UCSAS)

- ▶ A conference open to everyone interested in sports analytics, professional or amateur
- ▶ A unique feature: student friendly
- ▶ Hosted by UConn Statistical Data Science Lab with assistance from UConn Data Science Club
- ▶ Aiming to
 - ▶ showcase sports analytics to students at an accessible level;
 - ▶ train students in data analytics with application to sports data; and
 - ▶ foster collaboration between academic programs and the sports industry.
- ▶ Number of registrants: 2019: 129; 2020: 347; 2021: 314

New in 2022

- ▶ A data challenge in partnership with SMT (SportsMedia Technology)
- ▶ National Science Foundation travel support for student presenters
- ▶ A prelude of the 60th anniversary celebration of the UConn Statistics Department (Excellence in Statistics, Oct. 14-15, 2022)
- ▶ A workshop instructor team consisting of mostly UConn undergraduates
- ▶ A UCSAS logo (thank Clarissa Tan)

`./images/ucsas-black.png`

Analytics of UCSAS 2022

- ▶ 128 registrants at UConn website, 89 of whom are in-person
- ▶ 133 registrants through Clubear, our partner in China, thank Prof. Hansheng Wang, Peking University

| | | Undergrad | Graduate | Non-student | |
|---------------|---------|-----------|----------|-------------|----------|
| | | | | academic | industry |
| ▶ Composition | Overall | 91 | 52 | 40 | 78 |
| | Clubear | 25 | 28 | 23 | 57 |
| | UConn | 66 | 24 | 17 | 21 |

Logistics

- ▶ Virtual participants: put questions into the Q/A window in WebEx
- ▶ In-person participants: walk to a microphone and wait to be called upon before asking your question
- ▶ Lunch on your own (Student Union food court right next door)x
- ▶ Coffee/cookies available during the poster session (11:30–13:30)
- ▶ Training workshops:
 - ▶ Each workshop has its own (webex meeting) room
 - ▶ Virtual participants please mute yourself in each session.